

IS SOCIAL SECURITY REALLY SECURITY?

SEE YOU THERE! FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC
LIMITED SEATING, SO PLEASE COME EARLY
FOOD AND BEVERAGE SERVICE AVAILABLE

We are stepping it up in our last debate on spirited public discourse reinvigorating the big ideas on which a free society is based. The Controversy Club® presents a provocative, entertaining and informative open forum and you are invited to participate.

Interested? Want to know more? Have something to say?
We want you to join us.

TOPIC: Is Social Security Really Security?

DATE: Tuesday, June 15, 2010

TIME: Doors open at 6 p.m.
Program takes place 6:30 p.m. – 8 p.m.

LOCATION: "The Place" at Innsbrook Shoppes
4036-C Cox Road, Glen Allen, VA 23060
(804) 346-2100

DIRECTIONS:

- Take I-64 to the Richmond/Short Pump area
- Take exit #178B to W. Broad Street
- At the first light turn left on Dominion Blvd.
- Take the second entrance on the right off Dominion Blvd. in the Innsbrook Shoppes
- "The Place" is a 7,850 sq. ft. dedicated meeting space located in the Innsbrook Shoppes

The Place
AT INNSBROOK

Innsbrook
SHOPPES

SPEAKERS:
(see attached bios – next page)

Bill Kallio
State Director
for Virginia AARP

Sidney J. Gunst Jr.
Innsbrook Corporate Center
Visionary and Entrepreneur

Mark your calendars for this event:

For more information contact susan.craven@gmail.com.

BILL KALLIO

Bill Kallio has served as AARP's State Director for Virginia since 1995. In that capacity he oversees AARP's program, community service and advocacy activities within the state. He has been with AARP for 22 years. He first served as a Senior Program Specialist in AARP's Program Division where he directed AARP's national Widowed Persons Service (WPS) with over 230 program sites across the United States. Later he served as a Legislative Representative where he organized AARP's federal advocacy activities and developed grassroots volunteer activities in 6 states.

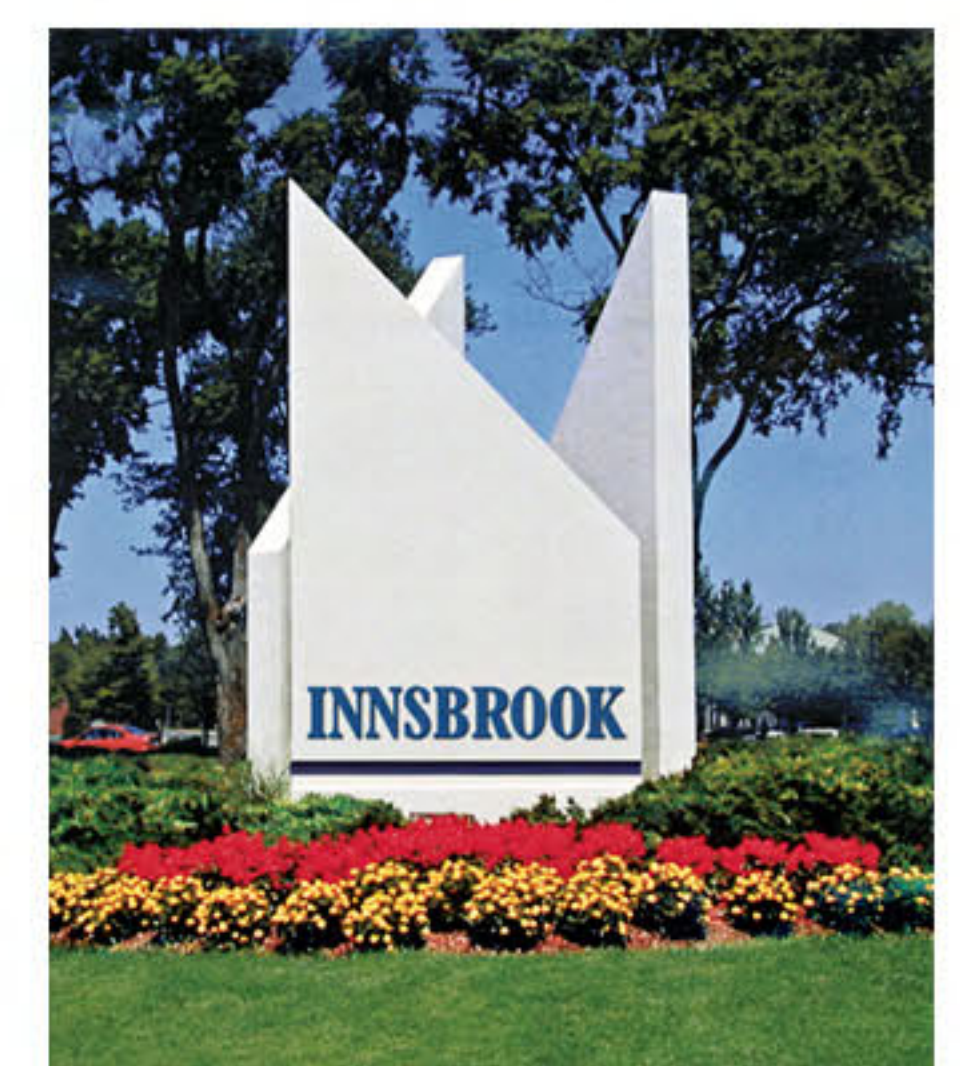

In addition to his AARP responsibilities, Bill serves as a member of the board of directors for the Virginia Coalition for the Aging, the steering committee of the Healthcare For All Virginians Coalition, the Futures Board of the Center on Aging at Virginia Tech and Chairperson of the Board of the Virginia Health Quality Center.

Prior to coming to AARP, he was the Executive Director of a Washington based national religious coalition addressing social policy issues in the United States, South Africa and Central America. Earlier in his career he was the Associate Director of a multi-service urban agency in Grand Rapids, MI.

Bill Kallio completed his undergraduate work in Political Science and holds master's degrees in Public Administration and Theological Studies.

SIDNEY J. GUNST, JR.

Sidney Gunst is a commercial real estate developer and entrepreneur from Richmond, Virginia. He is best known in Central Virginia as the developer of the Innsbrook Corporate Center, a project he conceived when he was 28 years old. This 850-acre mixed-use development encompasses over 400 companies, 20,000 plus employees and over 6 million square feet of office and commercial space.

Sidney Gunst has served on Richmond area boards, including Venture Richmond, the University of Richmond School of Continuing Studies, Elk Hill Farm (school for troubled youth), and the Innsbrook Owners Association. Sidney Gunst is a cofounder of The Objective Standard, a magazine dedicated to politics and culture. He has also worked with a non-profit think tank, the Ayn Rand Center for Individual Rights, in Washington, D.C. on policy issues related to the advocacy of individual rights, private property, free-markets, and the rule of objective law.